OSARK, Ark. (AP) — Fire heavily damaged the Greer Flower and Gift Shop Monday. Cause of the fire was not determined.

Jack Greer, one of the owners, declined to estimate the loss, which he said was partially covered by insurance. The shop, located on U.S. 64, lost all of its stock and a flower refrigeration unit in the blaze, Greer said.

Fort Smith Fights Union Recognition

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The city of Fort Smith asked the state Supreme Court Monday to overturn a controversial lower court ruling which compelled the city to recognize a union as bargaining agent of its non-uniformed employees.

Filing its arguments in an appeal of the ruling, the city contended that the meaning of Act 101 of 1947 was a significant issue in the case.

The act was the enabling legislation of Amendment 34 to the state constitution, the so-called right-to-work law of 1946.

The act says, in part: "Freedom of organized labor to bargain collectively and freedom of unorganized labor to bargain individually is declared to be the public policy of the state."

The city's attorneys argued that "the mere fact that the word 'state' is used in the language of the statute cannot seriously be taken as evidence that the legislature meant to bind municipal corporations."

The law, they said, "ignores the basic question of whether or not the legislature of the state of Arkansas intended that cities be forced to recognize the bargain collectively with a labor organization."

The city is appealing a ruling by Chancery Court Judge Warren Kimbrough of Fort Smith, who ordered the city to rehire

Ike Remains in Critical Condition

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's condition is still "critical," his doctors reported today, but they now feel that they can voice "cautious optimism" about his outlook.

In a medical bulletin at 10 a.m. EDT doctors of Walter Reed Army Hospital reported: "Gen. Eisenhower spent a restful evening. Although heart irritability persists to a varying degree there have been no major disturbances since Saturday evening."

"Despite his long period of confinement in bed, the general's spirits remain remarkably good."

"Insofar as is possible in the setting of Gen. Eisenhower's still critical condition, his physicians have expressed a note of cautious optimism."

Thus it appeared that the five-star general who suffered his seventh heart attack on Aug. 16, had rallied, at least temporarily, from a series of setbacks of varying degree of severity that had beset him beginning with last Saturday morning.

The 77-year-old general and former president endured a concentrated new series of rapid spasms early Monday. The irregularity leveled off during the day, doctors said.

The irregularity at no time Monday reached the stage of ventricular fibrillation or fluttering action that has occurred 10 times since his fourth attack Aug. 16 and poses his biggest threat.

The fibrillation can leave the brain without oxygen-rich blood and cause death if not stopped quickly.

The first hospital bulletin Monday said "Gen. Eisenhower has shown further increase in heart irritability since yesterday. Extra beats have been occurring with increasing frequency."

In the afternoon the bulletin said: "The incidence of extra beats, while high, has not further increased."

The evening bulletin said: "There has been no significant change in Gen. Eisenhower's condition since this afternoon's bulletin."

The 10 recent episodes of critical fluttering has left the former president unconscious twice.

When an electronic pacemaker failed to quiet the heart, doctors switched to electric paddles placed on the chest exterior.

The paddles shock the heart to a halt, permitting it to resume regular pulses after an instant.

Doctors also used drugs to quiet the heart.

Although the terse messages from the hospital were limited mostly to the general's heart action, doctors did say Eisenhower is taking meals and "continues to rest comfortably."

Eisenhower has been hospitalized since suffering a heart attack while vacationing in Palm Springs, Calif., April 29.

The latest attack was his seventh. He suffered the first in 1955.

striking workers who protested the city's refusal to recognize a union as their bargaining agent.

Kimbrough's decision upheld the position taken by the strikers and their designated bargaining representative, the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees AFL-CIO Council 38.

The union is expected to file its arguments by early next week.

The Arkansas Municipal League and a number of city officials have expressed concern about the implications of Kimbrough's ruling and the complications it could create in relations between cities and their employees.

Arkansas to Move Into Main Stream

By JOHN R. STARR
Associated Press Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — The Arkansas delegation prepared today to move into the mainstream of the Democratic National Convention by allowing Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey to seek to recover votes he may have lost because of abolition of the unit rule.

The delegation has rented the ballroom at the Palmer House for Humphrey's afternoon talk.

The Vice President was considered to have Arkansas' 33 votes in his pocket until the convention Monday night erased the right of delegations to operate under the unit rule. The rule permitted a delegation to cast all its votes for the candidate receiving a majority of the votes in a caucus of delegates.

Before hearing Humphrey, the delegation was to decide how it will proceed without the unit rule. It was suggested Monday that votes be apportioned according to the percentage the candidate receives in a caucus.

Under this system, backers of Sen. Eugene McCarthy hope to pick up five to 11 Arkansas votes.

Leon Catlett of Little Rock, the party's state chairman who was elected chairman of the delegation Monday, said that McCarthy had not requested time to speak to the delegates.

Sen. George S. McGovern asked to appear at today's morning caucus, Catlett said, but he later sent word that he could not make it.

After Monday's morning caucus at which Catlett was elected, the Arkansas group spent the rest of the day sightseeing with no organized activity on the schedule.

Some delegates were complaining because the delegation had no headquarters in operation and no apparent plan of procedure. Delegates even lacked identification badges, except for some which said "Arkansas For Humphrey."

Arkansas voted unanimously and on the winning side in both of the early convention roll calls.

The state cast 33 votes against delaying the report of the convention's Credentials Committee until Tuesday and 33 votes for seating the Regular Texas delegation.

Catlett took the microphone to cast the state's votes. Four years ago this role was played by Tom Harper of Fort Smith who since has become the state's National Committeeman.

Harper reported Monday that Mrs. Jack Carnes of Camden, the national committeewoman, was unable to attend the convention this year. This prompted a delegate to ask if Harper would play host of the champagne breakfast that Mrs. Carnes traditionally has staged for delegates.

"Mrs. Carnes gave me her proxy but not her checkbook," Harper said.

Arkansas has 54 delegates and 31 alternates and under the unit rule, each of the 85 persons had an equal voice in deciding how the state's votes would be cast.

Unless some kind of percentage formula is worked out, the alternates may lose their right to influence the vote. Certainly this will be the case if a request for a poll of the delegation is made on the floor. Any delegate can make this request and some of the younger delegates vigorously oppose the unit rule.

Home Injury Is Fatal

MEMPHIS (AP) — Donna Rae Fleming, age 15 months, of West Helena, Ark., died in a Memphis hospital Monday of injuries suffered at her home Sunday.

Police in West Helena said the child, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Fleming, apparently was injured in some undiscovered fashion when her father and his friend pushed the Fleming car backward into the Fleming yard Sunday. There were no tire marks on the child, but she had suffered a skull fracture, police said.

State Crime Increase in All Categories

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A report released Monday by the FBI shows that crime in Arkansas has increased in all reported categories, including total number of crimes.

Herbert Hoxie, agent in charge of the Little Rock FBI office, says, however, that the crime rate in Arkansas is not rising any faster than a comparable rate in other states.

"The whole nation should be concerned about this continuing increase," Hoxie said, "but I'm not aware of anything in Arkansas that should cause undue concern when compared to other states."

The figures, contained in the FBI's 1967 Uniform Crime Reports, did not give percentages of increase, but they did indicate the crime rate had continued to rise based on the numbers of crimes per 100,000 population.

The population rate - crime totals increased from 1966 to 1967 in total number of crimes, murder and nonnegligent manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny of $50 and more and automobile theft.

The percentages in all areas of crime rose from 831.4 per 100,000 persons in 1966 to 1,008.6 per 100,000 in 1967. The state's crime index climbed from 16,253 in 1966 to 19,850 last year.

The report said Arkansas ranked 22nd in the nation with 855 murders from 1962 through 1967 and tied Mississippi for eighth in the percentage by firearms. The percentage in the state was 69.1 compared to the national percentage of 58.2.

The report said 11,819 of the 19,850 crimes occurred in metropolitan areas, 4,848 in other cities and 3,194 in rural areas.

The total number and population rates of various crimes included: murder and nonnegligent manslaughter, 139 at 7.1 rate in 1966 and 173 and 8.8 rate in 1967; forcible rape, 192 and 9.8 in 1966 and 279 and 14.2 in 1967; robbery, 574 and 29.4 in 1966 and 693 and 35.2 in 1967; aggravated assault, 2,280 and 116.6 in 1966 and 3,175 and 161.3 in 1967; burglary, 6,534 and 325.0 in 1966 and 7,880 and 400.4 in 1967; larceny over $50, 5,193 and 265.6 in 1966 and 6,105 and 310.2 in 1967; and car theft, 1,521 and 77.8 in 1966 and 1,545 and 78.5 in 1967.

The report gave breakdowns for seven Arkansas cities, including the number of persons employed by the respective police departments.

The number of police department employees, including civilians, was Little Rock 205, North Little Rock 103, Fort Smith 98, Pine Bluff 66, Hot Springs, 50, Fayetteville 32 and Blytheville

Humphrey's Strength Picking Up

CHICAGO (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's first ballot strength in The Associated Press survey shot past the 900 mark today when he picked up the bulk of the Florida votes relinquished by Sen. George A. Smathers.

Smathers endorsed Humphrey Monday and said he would withdraw as a favorite son candidate for president either before or during the first ballot scheduled Wednesday night. Of Florida's 63 votes, 45 went to Humphrey, 6 to McCarthy and 12 were uncommitted.

The AP poll, based on primary results, public pledges and the results of caucuses and AP delegate checks, gave Humphrey 937 1/2 of the 1,312 votes needed for the nomination. Only firmly committed votes are counted, not delegates leaning to a candidate.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota trailed with 482 1/2 votes, while Sen. George S. McGovern of South Dakota was a distant third with 43 1/2. Favorite sons held 364 1/2, other candidates drew 15 1/2 and 780 1/2 were uncommitted.

Besides his big pickup in Florida, Humphrey gained 11 in Michigan. But he lost nine in Kansas when the convention rejected the unit rule.

His net gain for the day was 48 votes. McCarthy gained 5 1/2 and McGovern picked up six, three from South Dakota and two from Michigan.

Platform Vote Is Scheduled for Tonight

CHICAGO (AP) — Here are the highlights of the proposed platform to be voted on tonight by the Democratic National Committee:

VIETNAM

"Our most urgent task in Southeast Asia is to end the war in Vietnam by an honorable and last settlement which respects the rights of all the people of Vietnam...."

Recognizing that events in Vietnam and negotiations in Paris may affect the timing and the actions we recommend, we would support our government in the following steps:

"Bombing: Stop all bombing of North Vietnam when this action would not endanger the lives of our troops in the field. This action should take into account the response from Hanoi."

"Troop withdrawal: Negotiate with Hanoi an immediate end or limitation of hostilities and the withdrawal from Vietnam of all foreign forces...."

"Encourage all parties and interests to agree that the choice of the postwar government of South Vietnam should be determined by fair and safe-guaranteed election, open to all major political factions and parties prepared to accept peaceful political process...."

LAW AND ORDER

"We pledge a vigorous and sustained campaign against lawlessness in all its forms—organized crime, white collar crime, rioting and other violations of the rights and liberties of others. We will further this campaign by attack on the root causes of crime and disorder...."

"In fighting crime we must not foster injustice. Lawlessness cannot be ended by curtailing the hard-won liberties of all Americans. The right of privacy must be safeguarded...."

"A respect for civil peace requires also a proper respect for the legitimate means of expressing dissent. A democratic society welcomes criticism within the limits of the law."

TAX REFORM

"A thorough revamping of our federal taxes has long been overdue to make them more equitable as between rich and poor and among people with the same income and family responsibilities. All corporation and individual preferences that do not serve the national interest should be removed...."

"We support a proposal for a minimum income tax for persons of high income based on an individual's total income regardless of source...."

DEFENSE

"We must and will maintain a strong and balanced defense establishment adequate to the task of security and peace. There must be no doubt about our strategic nuclear capability, our capacity to meet limited challenges, and our willingness to act when our vital interests are threatened."

"Even in the present tense atmosphere, we strongly support President Johnson's effort to secure an agreement with the Soviet Union under which both states would refrain from deploying antimissile systems."

OTHERS

In other areas the Platform Committee proposed the implementation of the recommendations of Civil Disorders Commission; deplored violence in television programming; proposed doubling in the volume of homebuilding to a yearly rate of 2.6 million units; the expansion of public job and job training programs; and proposed reform of welfare programs.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Television coverage of the Democratic National Convention started Monday night an hour before the first gavel fell, and the network anchor men could have used even more time to outline possible trouble spots.

The floor reporters, too, could have used more time wriggling through crowds trying to ferret out the size and shape of the "boomlet" for Sen. Edward M. Kennedy.

After the start, NBC and CBS coverage swung almost equally between formal speeches on the podium and interviews with delegations on the floor.

ABC's "unconventional" convention coverage—the 90-minute wrap-up starting at 9:30 EDT—had trouble wrapping up anything since it ran into Sen. Daniel Inouye's keynote speech, which it covered live and thus used up about half its air time.

But when the convention moved on to preliminary skirmishes over suspension of the unit rule of voting, ABC cut back to some entertaining feature material.

The best was its anatomical study of a campaign song—"Let a Winner Lead the Way," chosen by Hubert H. Humphrey. It's original title, in a Broadway show, was "Please Step to the Rear," but this was abandoned because of its negative attitude. The vice president himself asked permission to adapt the tune, said the show's producer, David Marick, who four years ago presented Lyndon B. Johnson with "Hello, Dollye."

But even such a simple matter as setting new, appropriate words to a song can present problems and hurt feelings. The author of the officially approved workload for police not related to crime, and understrength police forces.

Seventy-six policemen were killed by criminals in 1967. This was 19 more than 1966, and well above the annual average of 48.

Firearms were used in all but five of last year's police killings. A total of 7,600 persons were shot to death in the United States last year, while another 4,400 died by other means such as beatings, stabbings and clubbings.

Forty eight per cent were slain by handguns, 9 per cent by shotguns and 6 per cent by rifles.

During the period 1962 through 1967, the report showed, there were 59,015 murders of which 58 per cent were gun murders.

Four Northeastern states with strict gun control laws had the lowest incidence of murder by firearms—Rhode Island 34.1 per cent; New York 34.9; Massachusetts 39.9; and New Jersey 41.2. Texas, without gun control laws, recorded the highest number of homicides—5,104—of which 70 per cent were gun deaths. California, also lacking strict gun control laws, had 4,857 murders of which more than half—52 per cent—were caused by firearms.

Thirty week's annual school attendance is compulsory for all Utah children from 6 to 18 years of age, according to Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Transplant Patient Dies of Cancer

By BURL OSBORNE

Associated Press Writer
DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Julie Cherie Rodriguez, who lived with a transplanted liver longer than anyone known to science, died of cancer Monday evening at the University of Colorado Medical Center.

"It was a blessing," said her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rodriguez of Pueblo, Colo. "She had suffered so much, I'm glad God came and picked her up," said her father.

At 2, the pretty, wide-eyed little girl was too young to know that by surviving more than 13 months after the transplant she offered hope to uncounted victims of otherwise terminal liver ailments.

Julie's new liver had functioned well since it was implanted on July 23, 1967. The donor was a child who had died of causes that left the liver undamaged.

But cancer, which destroyed Julie's own liver by the time she was a year old, appeared elsewhere in her body. Several additional operations failed to curb it, and several weeks ago, just before the first anniversary of the transplant, the parents learned there was no hope.

"We're not bitter or sorry that we went through it," said Rodriguez. "We're grateful we had this chance to keep Julie a little longer and with what doctors have learned, help humanity a little."

"God sent her to us for a purpose and she fulfilled it," said her mother.

There were no known survivors of liver transplant operations when Julie—affectionately called "Ju Ju"—underwent the surgery.

Thirteen have been performed here since Julie's, and five of these patients still live. Doctors say improved methods of storing donor livers until they can be implanted, and better techniques of suppressing the body's tendency to reject the new organ have contributed to the improved outlook.

Movie Star Kay Francis Dies at 63

NEW YORK (AP) — Kay Francis, the tall brunette glamour girl who became one of the highest paid Hollywood stars of the 1930's, died Monday following a long illness. She was 63.

She had been a cancer patient at New York Hospital but returned home to her apartment on East 64th Street Saturday. At her request there will be no funeral service.

Her acting career began on Broadway but quickly shifted to Hollywood where she made more than 50 films including, "Raffles," "Mandalay," "I Found Stella Parish" and "Give Me Your Heart."

She was a popular success and her financial rewards were substantial. In 1937 she received $227,500 in salary while an industrial executive like the chairman of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. earned $85,000.

In her lavishly furled suits and long slinky evening gowns she won a reputation as one of filmland's best-dressed women; she was considered the epitome of glamour and sexiness in her era.

In 1946, after an 18-year absence from the Broadway stage, she returned in "State of the Union," the Pulitzer Prize comedy and she ended her acting career in summer stock.

People love to complain about their problems, but are usually more stimulated than destroyed by them. If a man has no troubles to overcome, no dangers to surmount, no barriers to break through, how can he prove he's a hero? It is also better to have a choice of problems to worry about, as one problem can become too boring. That's why a dog with two fleas leads a far more interesting life than a dog with but a single flea nor no fleas at all.

If the Democratic convention in Chicago reminds you in a depressing way of the Republican antics you saw recently in Miami Beach, you can blame it on one of television's key faults—too many summer reruns.

President Johnson Is 60 Today

By FRANK CORMIER

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson turned 60 today, slimmer, grayer and more secretive about his birthday doings.

Unlike past years in which the presidential birthday was usually observed by a big family gathering with plenty of notice beforehand, there was no advance word on what Johnson planned.

While Johnson celebrates—or at least observes—the start of his sixth decade, the party he heads is holding its nominating convention in Chicago.

When and whether Johnson would pay a visit to the convention was the subject of much speculation, but traditionally outgoing presidents have waited until after the nominations before putting in an appearance.

That would make it Thursday if a presidential visit is planned at all.

Just four years ago, Johnson was the toast of the boardwalk at Atlantic City, N.J., when Democrats gathered for their quadrennial convention. Showing up for a gala birthday salute, the President accepted nomination and went on to win a record landslide over Republican Barry S. Goldwater.

Today was different, Johnson is not a candidate for another term. His popularity within his own party has been eroded by war in Vietnam and civil discord at home.

At 60, and after nearly five years as president, Johnson is much grayer and his face is more deeply lined than when he took over the nation's highest office. But, on the plus side, some find him slimmer—testimony to the rigors of a series of strenuous diets.

Victim of a major heart attack in 1955, he never has suffered any recurrence of that ailment, so far as is publicly known. And it has been a mark of his presidency that he has driven himself, physically, at a pace matching the most vigorous of any of his predecessors.

Earlier this month, Johnson's personal physician, Vice Adm. George G. Burkley, announced that all usual health readings were well within normal limits.

After additional tests, the White House indicated all was well although there never has been any definite announcement to that effect.

MORE QUESTIONS ON MARIJUANA

Dear Helen: Two questions: Have any studies been made that PROVE marijuana is harmful; and can smoking pot cause cancer or other lung diseases? —DALE

Dear Dale: Nobody knows for sure what physical ailments marijuana causes, for while research is underway at several universities, most of the findings will not be made public until they are more conclusive. Presently, the big case against pot is that it often impairs judgment and leaves the mind open to senseless or dangerous suggestions. It is also unpredictable, for it tends to exaggerate whatever emotional mood the user may be feeling at the time. If he is depressed, he may feel suicidal; if angry or excited, he might try something wild; if happy, he'll be content to sit and dream—or if he isn't susceptible to the drug (probably because it has been so well cut with oregano, etc.) he'll wonder why he risked a felony charge to smoke it.

Concerning cancer and other lung troubles: My semi-educated guess is that if nicotine tars threaten health, why wouldn't marijuana resins? In a few years we'll have many more answers to the Cannabis question. Meanwhile the Food and Drug Administration sees enough danger in pot to label it an illegal narcotic. I'll buy that, although I think the felony count for possession, first offense, should be changed to "misdemeanor." —H

Dear Helen: I read about a five-year survey which proved marijuana smokers became life drop-outs if they became habitual. Tell us more, —T.M.

Dear T.: You probably mean the survey conducted by Dr. Constantinos J. Miras, Chairman of the Department of Biological Chemistry, University of Athens. He made an extensive study of chronic hashish smokers, and some of his findings can be applied to marijuana, for both drugs are prepared from the Cannabis plant and have the same active ingredients. Hashish, however, is usually stronger.

Dr. Miras found that after 15 to 20 years, heavy users are "usually out of the community." He adds, "This is due to laziness, psychic instability, amorality and loss of drive and ambition. They have rather apathetic faces of greyish-yellow color... They all look much older for their age, are thin, and in very poor general health. They speak and move slowly in a peculiar way. They are oversuspicious, unstable in their judgment, sometimes dangerous, and earn (or more likely steal) only enough to sustain life and their drug needs, with minimum effort."

After two or three years of smoking hashish most users tend to increase the amount of quality of the stuff consumed, to escape as much as possible from reality. Chronic smokers, Dr. Miras discovered, lose their appetites along with their sex drives. Begging users find their appetites much increased, especially for carbohydrates and sweets. They become psychologically hooked because the drug provides an illusion of increased ability, well-being, and self-confidence, though this often does not come with the first few experiences. In the case of marijuana smoking, it may not come at all. Dr. Miras explains this in a letter to me:

"I have an recently an experience not included in my earlier work. In examining 100 marijuana cigarettes collected in both the United States and Europe, I found out that up to 50 percent were badly straw. Two cigarettes, both from the U.S., were pharmacologically quite inert, as no tetrahydrocannabinol (THC) (the active principle) or other active compounds were present. The possible explanation to this is that besides the difference in strength among the plants of different origin, some adulteration is often present, as in the case with other narcotics, cocaine, etc." —C. J. Miras, M.D., Ph.D.

Which means the joint you buy from the pusher down the street may get you busted, but there's a 50 per cent chance it won't get you high.

Any way you look at it, the odds are against the person who figures grass is his dish of tea. —H

Orioles Miss Chance to Gain Some

By MIKE RECHT

Associated Press Sports Writer

With the bases loaded in the ninth inning, the Baltimore Orioles ran out of Dave McNally, missing another chance to gain ground on the Detroit Tigers, who had more than enough Earl Wilson.

Baltimore had cut another half game off Detroit's lead when McNally belted a grand slam homer and a run-scoring single and hurled a six-hit 8-2 victory over Oakland in the opener of their two-night double-header Monday.

But with three men on and one out in the ninth of the nightcap, the Orioles had used up their McNally and Diego Segui pitched out of the jam to give the A's a 2-0 triumph.

Still the Orioles had a chance to cut into Detroit's lead, until Wilson swung his bat and arm, driving in two runs behind his own six-hitter for the Tigers' 3-0 decision over the Chicago White Sox.

The outcome left Baltimore backing up, reversing a week-end trend, and Detroit increased its American League lead over the Orioles to 5½ games.

In other games, Boston and Jim Lonborg blanked Cleveland 3-0, Minnesota beat Washington 4-2 before losing 1-0 in 13 innings, and California bombed the New York Yankees 10-2 after dropping a 6-1 verdict.

In the National League, San Francisco tripped the Chicago Cubs 3-0 in the afternoon before Pittsburgh halted Atlanta 4-0, Cincinnati outlasted Philadelphia 6-5, the New York Mets edged St. Louis 1-0 and Los Angeles upended Houston 4-3 at night.

McNally was just too much for Oakland in the opener as he won his ninth consecutive game since the All-Star break for a 17-8 record and became the first Oriole to drive in five runs in one game this season.

The first slam of his career, and second homer this season, capped a seven-run explosion in the first inning after Brooks Robinson cracked his 15th homer with a man on. McNally singled home the last Baltimore run in the third as the Orioles won their fourth game in five starts.

But any facsimile of the McNally bat was missing against Jim Hunter and then Segui in the second game.

Hunter, 11-11, working on a three-hitter, entered the ninth with a 2-0 lead built when Danny Cater singled home an unearned run in the seventh after Robinson's error and reliever Pete Richert balked home a run in the eighth.

When the first two Orioles singled in the ninth, Segui came in and his one-out walk loaded the bases. But this time the Orioles left them loaded as Elrod Hendricks struck out and Dave Johnson grounded out.

Wilson, performing before a standing room crowd of 42,808 in the White Sox' last of nine games in Milwaukee—they won only one—was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded in the second inning. He singled in another tally in the seventh.

Wilson evened his record at 11-11 as he ended Detroit's four-game losing streak that had cut the Tigers' lead from 7½ to five games from Friday to Monday.

Lonborg, 4-5 plagued first by knee trouble and then shoulder problems this season, hurled a three-hitter and struck out nine for his first complete game.

Tim Cullen's one-out, run-scoring single off Ron Perranoski gave Washington its split after teammate Frank Bertina allowed only two hits for the first 11 innings and the Twins' Jim Perry gave two in nine innings.

Minnesota won the opener with four runs in the seventh inning, the last two on Rich Reese's infield dribbler.

Fritz Peterson, 7-9, who had lost six in a row, yielded only four hits and drove in three runs with a double and a sacrifice fly for the Yankees' fifth straight victory and 13th in 16 games.

But Jim McGlothlin, 9-12, backed by a 13-hit attack, drubbed the Yankees, in the nightcap with a four-hitter—one of them Roy White's homer.

New York, with a fourth doubleheader in five days scheduled today, used shortstop Gene Michael on the mound

Kemp Lost to Bills for Season

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP) — After hearing about the Buffalo Bills' latest physical mishaps, a well-wisher said to Coach Joe Collier, "Good luck."

"We don't need any luck," snapped Collier.

The Bills, however, could use some anti-injury spray.

The need for such a preventive is apparent once again this year. The latest calamity struck the Bills Monday when quarterback Jack Kemp tore ligaments in his right knee and rookie halfback Gary McDermott suffered a possible dislocated elbow.

Kemp, injured during a scrimmage when defensive end Ron McDole fell on him, is lost for the season while McDermott is expected to miss at least six weeks.

Collier, though, remains undaunted, at least publicly. "We haven't folded our tent," he said Monday. "We're just as optimistic as before."

The Bills were so optimistic, in fact, they felt they had a good chance of winning the American Football League's Eastern Division title if they could escape the rash of injuries that decimated them last year.

But this year's siege didn't begin much later than last season's. In 1967 star guard Billy Shaw tore ligaments in his right knee and missed much of the season.

This year halfback Keith Lincoln cracked some ribs on the Bills' first offensive play in their first exhibition game. Two plays later fullback Wray Carlton hurt a knee. Before the end of the quarter flanker Elbert Dubenion and cornerback Booker Edgerson also were injured.

Then in the second game guard Joe O'Donnell tore ligaments in his right knee. He could miss the entire season.

As far as Collier is concerned, only the mishaps to Kemp and O'Donnell are serious. At the same time, he feels he has sufficient replacements.

Dick Cunningham, a pro sophomore, has filled O'Donnell's spot while veteran Tom Flores will step in for Kemp.

"We've always felt Flores is a top quarterback, and we feel Dan Darragh is a top rookie quarterback," Collier said.

Collier, however, also admitted Flores has been handicapped by a lack of work so far because of a sore shoulder.

"But we have two weeks before the opener, and that should be enough time for Tom to get in the work he needs," Collier added.

Flores, 30, started 1967 as the No. 1 quarterback, but a knee injury and an eye problem dumped him behind Kemp. He threw only 64 passes all season, completing 22 for a poor 34 per cent mark.

Darragh, from William and Mary, has impressed the Bills' coaches but isn't likely to see too much action unless Flores flatters badly.

Although McDermott has been Buffalo's top all-around back in exhibition games, his loss will not be as great as Kemp's because the Bills are deep in running backs, a condition that didn't exist last season.

Besides the veterans Lincoln and Carlton, Collier has rookies Ben Gregory from Nebraska and Max Anderson from Arizona State who have looked good. The Bills are also deep in wide receivers with Dubenion, Monte Ledbetter, Ed Rutkowski, rookie Haven Moses from San Diego State, rookie Dick Trapp from Florida and Bobby Crockett. The light ends are Paul Costa and Charley Ferguson.

Clay Wants to Aid Youths in Ghettos

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Former heavyweight boxing champion Cassius Clay says he wanted to aid youth in the Negro ghettos of Philadelphia.

He says he figured he could set up a training headquarters in Philadelphia and after a month or so fight a one-shot exhibition bout.

"I am willing to go to Philadelphia," he wrote the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission, "to help the youth of the ghetto remain within the confines of the law, to help keep the youth on the right track, to talk to the various gang leaders and to aid the youth of the black ghetto."

But the commission denied Clay's application by a 2-1 vote Monday.

Cardinals Shut Out by 1-0 Score

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

The first two runs the New York Mets scored for Jim McAndrew came a little too late ... and a little too early. The next one came just in time.

McAndrew, shut out in his first four major league starts and beaten 13-3 in his fifth try after receiving an early two-run boost, finally broke the ice Monday night with a 1-0 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The 2-year-old right-hander completed a five-hitter against the National League leaders after the Mets broke a scoreless tie on Cleon Jones' sacrifice fly in the eighth inning.

That run gave McAndrew a total of three in his 38 1-3 innings in the majors.

Elsewhere, Gaylord Perry fired a one-hitter as San Francisco trimmed the Chicago Cubs 3-0; Pittsburgh blanked Atlanta 4-0; behind Steve Blass; Cincinnati edged Philadelphia 6-5 and Los Angeles shaded Houston 4-3.

In the American League, Detroit topped Chicago 3-0; Boston beat Cleveland California 6-1 in the first game of a twin bill but lost the nightcap 10-2; Baltimore split a pair with Oakland, winning 8-2 before bowing 2-0, and Washington nipped Minnesota 1-0 in 13 innings after falling to the Twins 4-2 in their own bleacher opener.

McAndrew had the dubious distinction of making his major league debut against the Cardinals and Bob Gibson two months ago. He allowed only one run in six innings, but Gibson blanked the Mets 2-0.

In his next outing, the Met rookie lasted only 2-3 innings and lost 2-0 to Los Angeles' Mike Kekich, who tossed a one-hitter. He dropped a pair of 1-0 duels to San Francisco's Bob Bolin and Houston's Don Wilson in his third and fourth starts, then took on the Giants' Juan Marichal last Wednesday.

The Mets scored twice in the third inning for a 2-1 edge, but the shock proved too much for McAndrew. He was driven from the mound in a five-run fifth-inning deluge and tagged with his fifth straight setback.

Monday night he turned the tables, outpitching southpaw Steve Carlton, 11-9, who took his eighth straight loss. Tommie Agee led off the eighth with a single and Phil Linz sacrificed. Agee then stole third and flashed home on Jones' fly to right, giving McAndrew the nod.

Perry retired the first 19 batters he faced, gave up a single through the middle by Glenn Beckert in the seventh and then knocked off the last eight Cubs in order.

Willie Mays drove in two runs with a single and his 17th homer, assuring Perry's 13th victory in 21 decisions. Mays also doubled and scored in the ninth as the Giants won for the 13th time in their last 16 starts.

Blass scattered nine hits on the way to his 12th victory against five defeats and the Pirates capitalized on Atlanta errors to pin the loss on Milt Pappas.

Maury Wills singled in the first inning, stole second and continued to third on catcher Joe Torre's overthrow before scoring the only run Blass needed on a sacrifice fly by Matty Alou.

Jim Beauchamp slammed a two-run homer in the fourth inning and drove in the Reds' winning run with an infield single in the seventh, offsetting a grand slam homer by Philadelphia slugger Rich Allen.

Reliever Jay Carroll blanked the Phillies over the last five innings to pick up the victory. Tony Perez lashed four of the Reds' 13 hits and teammate Pete Rose extended his hitting streak to 16 games.

Tom Haller's run-scoring triple in the sixth staked Dodgers' starter Don Sutton to a 4-1 lead, but he needed last out help from Jack Binningham in the ninth after Bob Aspromonte tripled to key a two-run Houston come-back.

His first grand slam homer and a single to back his own six-hit pitching in Baltimore's 8-2 victory over Oakland in the opener of their two-night doubleheader.

Records Are Smashed in Swim Meet

By JACK STEVENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Cate Ball joins two other teen-agers as double world record smashers at the U.S. women's Olympic swimming trials with the assault far from over.

Sixteen-year-old Cate, who won a battle against mononucleosis early this year, clipped a full second off her own world record in the 200-meter breaststroke in 2 minutes 38.5 seconds.

Once she had broken the 100-meter record in the same stroke with a 1:14.7 on Sunday, the cute pug-nosed blonde from Jacksonville, Fla., joined Debbie Mayer, 16, and Claudia Kolb, 18, in breaking two world records.

Debbie could shatter a 1-1-1 another before the event at the Los Angeles swim stadium ends Sunday. Having established new standards of 4:24.6 in the 400-meter freestyle and 2:06.7 for 200, she swims the 100 today after resting Monday, and the 800 on Wednesday.

The Sacramento youngster, who has just finished her sophomore year in high school, said she would like to swim all four races in the Olympic Games at Mexico City in October.

Others winners Monday were Kaye Hall of Tacoma, Wash., with an American record of 1:06.5 in the 100-meter backstroke and Toni Hewitt of Corona Del Mar, Calif., with 2:22.86 in the 200-meter butterfly.

Three in each event qualify for the Olympic team. Trailing Miss Ball were Cathy Jamling of the Santa Clara, Calif., Swim Club at 2:42.53 and Sharon Wichman of Port Wayne Ind., at 2:44.08.

In the backstroke, the qualifiers with Miss Hall were Jane Swagerly, of Santa Clara, and Kendis Moore, of the Arizona Desert Rats at Phoenix.

The butterfly race was so close that some judges picked Ellie Daniel, an 18-year-old Penn State coed, as the winner. The electronic timer had her in 2:22.86, just two-hundredths of a second behind Miss Hewitt, Diane Giebel of Los Angeles was third in 2:23.11.

Home Runs Fatal to Travelers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Borck Davis and Glenn Clark cracked two-run home runs in the seventh and eighth innings as Dallas-Fort Worth defeated the Arkansas Travelers 6-4 here Monday night.

The loss snapped the Trays' three-game winning streak and coupled with Shreveport's 6-2 victory over Memphis, cut Arkansas' lead to four games in the Eastern Division of the Texas League.

Dallas-Fort Worth scored two runs in the second on two walks and two singles but Arkansas tied the score in the third on Boots Day's sixth homer of the year.

Davis' first homer of the season followed a one-out single by Ernie Follis. Clark's sixth circuit blast came after a walk. Shreveport snapped Memphis' seven-game winning streak with two runs in the seventh and

Pro Teams Cut Players With Gusto

By MIKE BRYSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

When the Saints go marching in, Obert Logan and Ray Rissmiller won't.

The two New Orleans veterans were among more than 75 players turned loose by the pro football clubs Monday—the final day for meeting the latest league roster limits.

National Football League teams were required to cut their rosters to 49, American League teams to 43. And several clubs slashed away with gusto.

Kansas City released seven players, including four of its top 10 draft picks, while Chicago, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Washington and New Orleans of the NFL and New York of the AFL all released a half dozen players or more.

Most of those cut left camp without a word. One who didn't was Booth Lusteg, 29-year-old placekicker released by Miami of the AFL.

"I think they made a mistake," charged Lusteg, who said he had been expecting it since missing a 30-yard field goal last Friday that cost the Dolphins a chance to beat Boston in the last seconds of an exhibition.

"I don't want to make it seem like I'm poor-mouthing," said Lusteg, "but I've studied kicking a long time, I had a good record last season and I think Coach (George) Wilson made a mistake."

In addition to releasing Logan, free safety acquired from Dallas in the NFL expansion draft, and Rissmiller, Philadelphia's No. 2 draft choice in 1965, New Orleans also cut six others, including No. 3 draft choice Ronnie South of West Texas State.

Kansas City went a step farther in releasing once-promising talent. It let go No. 2 draft pick Mike Livingston, a star quarterback at Southern Methodist; No. 4 Mickey McCarthy, tight end from Texas Christian; No. 7 Sammy Grezaffi, defensive back from Louisiana State, and No. 9 Wayne McClure, linebacker from Mississippi.

Also among seven players released were veterans Eddie Bloodowski, a guard, and center Ray Kubala.

Two of the six released by San Francisco were draft choices—No. 7 Jerry Richardson, line-backer from Mississippi, and No. 8 Tommie Gray, a receiver from Morehead State.

Atlanta dropped tight end Duane Allen, a six-year NFL veteran claimed by the Falcons on waivers after his release by the Chicago Bears. Defensive end Bo Wood, who saw action in all 14 game last season, also was put on waivers.

Green Bay gave up on No. 7 draft choice Andy Beath, defensive back from Duke, and kicker Wade Traynham, just recently acquired in a trade with Atlanta.

The Minnesota Vikings cut five players, including former Canadian Football League star Willie Fleming, but used a little trick

Boston Glad Lonborg Has Returned

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP) — Jim Lonborg, the Boston Red Sox 1967 Cy Young Award winner, quietly accepted congratulations on a job well done. Catcher Russ Gibson summed up the feeling of the Boston players in a half dozen words.

"It's great to have him back," Gibson said as Lonborg soaked his arm in ice after a brilliant three-hitter in a 3-0 victory over the Cleveland Indians Monday night.

"It's been a long, long time," Lonborg said in the wake of his first complete game since the World Series with the St. Louis Cardinals last fall.

"My arm feels good, the best it has felt all year," the 25-year-old pitcher said. "I'm down to 193 pounds, 17 under what I'd like to weigh, but I didn't tire. I finally was hitting the corners."

Lonborg, plagued by a knee injury suffered in a skiing accident last winter and then bothered by shoulder trouble, looked like the pitcher who won 22 games in pitching Boston to the pennant a year ago.

"He threw hard and had good stuff," Gibson said. "He was hitting the spots he wanted. And his fast ball was moving." Lonborg threw 121 pitches, struck out nine and didn't walk a batter in boosting his season record to 4-5. His control was so fine that he ran the count to 3 and 2 against just two batters.

Horse Carriage Gets a Meter

NEW YORK (AP) — Added to the clomp-clomp of hooves during rides through Central Park in a horse-drawn hack will be a less romantic sound—the ticking of a meter.

Joseph L. Forstadt, acting license commissioner, said Sunday the 63 flower-decorated vehicles will be equipped with meters. He said some drivers have been charging more than the prescribed rates, $5 for the first half hour, $2 for every additional half hour.

Looked Like a Vending Box

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP) — A tourist from West Germany attempted to obtain a bus ticket Sunday and instead brought wailing sirens and a contingent from the fire department.

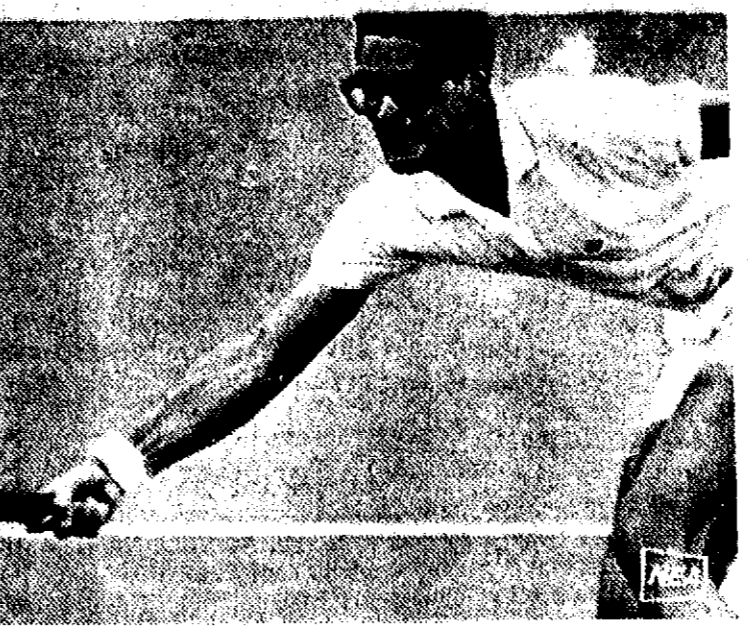

Firemen said Volker Gligling of West Germany told them his country has automatic ticket dispensing machines at bus stops and he thought a fire alarm box was a similar device.

Wales is often referred to in literature as Cambria, its Latin name.

'Revolution' Reaches Forest Hills

By IRA BERKOW
NEA Sports Writer

NEW YORK (NEA) — "This should be," said Allison Danzig, "the greatest tennis tournament ever held in this country. It is something fans here have been waiting years to see."

Danzig, former tennis reporter for the New York Times and recent inductee into the Tennis Hall of Fame, was referring to the first United States Open championships to be held at Forest Hills, N.Y., from Thursday, Aug. 29, through Sunday, Sept. 8.

For the first time in history, competitors in the Forest Hills tournament will be amateurs and pros. As far back as 1928, the United States Lawn Tennis Association requested the International Federation to permit open tennis tournaments around the world. They were refused.

In the 1930s the USLTA sought to allow each country to decide whether to hold open tournaments. The international group turned rackets down. More open attempts and more refusals continued through the years.

Then this year came the dramatic break in service. Revolutionary open tennis tournaments were held at Wimbledon, in France and other sites.

Now comes America's turn, with $100,000 in prize money take shared by the professionals.

Predictably, excitement for this tournament has been high. First, because it is so different. Another point is that fans will get an opportunity to see the pros playing best of five matches on a fast grass surface. This contrasts to the normally eight to 10 matches on the synthetic portable surface. Therefore, tennis buffs came to equate pro contests with being simply exhibitions, attending matches not so much to see who won, but to watch great players make great shots.

"This will change at Forest Hills, of course," said Danzig. "Interest will center around winning. Another stimulating element is the influx of young, new faces in tennis. Excitement is stirred by this and has accounted for much of the popularity of amateur tennis."

Tom Okker, the fine Dutch amateur, is an example of the fresh blood on display at Forest Hills. He beat Australian professional Rod Laver, considered the best player in the world, in the Queen's Open in London this year. He also beat Arthur Ashe, Alex Omeda and Nikola Pilic to win the tournament. At Wimbledon he whipped Roy Emerson before losing to Ashe.

Meanwhile Ashe, at his best, is also capable of beating anyone. His serve is virtually unparalleled. His backhand is stupendous. He has gaps, though, in consistency. And Charley Pasarell, like Ashe, is also equipped at prime moments to upset even the finest pros.

According to the men's singles seeds, these are the 10 best: Laver, Tony Roche, Ken Rosewall, John Newcombe, and others.

Nominee Is Not Known

EMPORIA, Kan. (AP) — Republicans nominated Eugene Lingo for Lyon County treasurer, but no one seems to know him or where he is.

Lingo paid a fee of $69.04 and gave his address as 428 Market St., Emporia, when he filed as a Republican candidate.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Snider operate a rooming house at that address, and Mrs. Snider recalled that Lingo rented a room for one week during the spring.

"He stayed the first night and the last night," Mrs. Snider said. "He didn't even bring any clothes." She remarked that he said he was going on vacation and would buy a house when he came back to Emporia.

Lacy Hayes, Republican county chairman, said "I've never to my knowledge, met Mr. Lingo. 'I don't know anything about him.'"

Eugene Lingo's name will be on the ballot Nov. 5. The Democratic candidate is Lula Hunt, the current deputy county treasurer.

Customer Leaves $2,000 Tip

BLOOMINGDALE, N.Y. (AP) — Mrs. Doris Lapierre, 60, remembers fondly if a little vaguely a hurried customer at her diner on Aug. 16—the man left a $2,000 tip.

The tip was in the form of a winning service station game card and Mrs. Lapierre is going to collect her check from a major oil company today.

"I don't remember what he looked like, but I do know he had a sandwich and some macaroni salad," she said of her benefactor.

The man came during the noon rush, she said, and it wasn't until later that she opened the card.

"It was a $2,000 instant winner. I burned everybody's toast for the rest of the day," she said. "I've been a bundle of nerves ever since."

Rain Triggers Landslides

TOKYO (AP) — Heavy rains brought by tropical storm Trix triggered landslides in central Japan which killed one person and injured two others, police reported Monday.

They said seven houses were destroyed and 2,700 others were inundated by floods in seven prefectures in central and southwestern Japan. The landslides also disrupted train service in some areas by blocking tracks.

And not all former players pump gas. The first year Johnny Antonelli voluntarily quit the San Francisco Giants, at a relatively tender 31, he took a 25-grand cut in income. But now he owns six Firestone stores by himself in the Rochester, N.Y. area.

Between you'n me, Julius Boros borrows from an old Satch Paige maxim when asked if he's worried about the challenge of the younger generation on the links: "I never look back over my shoulder." Actually, Satch originally cautioned, "Never look back. They might be gaining on you."

Flat assessment by Billie Jean King about the caliber of the old-time gal tennis players: "Helen Wills couldn't have beaten any of today's girls. And I was more impressed with Little Mo (Maureen Connolly) than I was with Althea Gibson. I could probably play with the boys on pretty even terms except for one thing—I couldn't break their service."

Reason Billie Jean continued her tennis while husband Larry King went to school full-time at California was that she could make more money, even in her amateur days, than Larry could working and going to school.

Former pitching great (and coach) Bob Turley, now in business in Atlanta, chimes in with a one-word reason for the nonhitting revolution in baseball: "Slider." Turley claims quick mastery of the pitch explains why pitchers of 18, 19 and 20 can make it to the majors: "They can control it better than their fast ball."

Billy Martin, on the other hand, pinpoints greater defense for lower batting averages. "You hear them introduce Pie Traynor at an old-timers' game as the greatest third baseman of all time. Then you see that guy at Baltimore (Brooks Robinson), and nobody EVER hits a ball past him."

Fran Tarkenton's impact on the Big City gets bigger and bigger. Now he's got his own television show swinging into production, written by Eliot Asinof, who authored "Tiger Wore Spikes" and other sports books.

Even old ballplayers are lethargized by baseball as it's played today. Moe Berg, who speaks nine languages, can't sit through a nine-inning game. Bill Skowron, out of baseball only one season, didn't see a single game this year in his hometown Chicago until he showed up for a White Sox old-timers' day.

OU Is OK in '68 Kansas Threat in Big 8; North Texas Tops MVC

By TOMMY THOMAS
NEA Sports Writer

NORMAN, Okla. — (NEA) — Oklahoma was so good last year, the Big Eight's leading rusher couldn't break into the starting lineup.

Tailback Steve Owens gained over 800 yards and scored 72 points—without ever starting a game—as the Sooners went undefeated in the conference, upset Tennessee in the Orange Bowl and finished 10-1 for the season.

Coach Chuck Fairbanks goes into his second campaign with not only Owens but also eight of his 11 offensive starters returning, including all-conference quarterback Bobby Warrack, speedy wingback Eddie Hinton and powerful fullback Mike Harper. Each could be all-league in '68.

Also, a half dozen regulars return to the defensive unit that gave up fewer points per game last year than any in the country. They are end Jim Files, tackle John Tittsworth, linebacker Gary Harper, halfback Bruce Stensrud, safety Steve Barrett and tackle Dick Paaso, who is moving to middle guard to plug the gap vacated by All-American Granville Liggins.

The only real problems facing OU are a lack of depth and a conference race that could be the tightest and most exciting in the history of the Big Eight. But before their first league opponent is met, the Sooners have to face the likes of Notre Dame, North Carolina State and Texas.

It won't be an easy year but, as they say in the song Oklahoma, it should come out O.K.

KANSAS — Bobby Douglass, last season's conference back-of-the-year, returns at quarterback to give coach Pepper Rodgers a strong shot at the title. Douglass should get help from running backs Junior Riggins, John Jackson and Don Shanklin while all-conference end John Zook leads an able defense. On the offensive line, tight end John Mosier, tackle Keith Christensen and center Dale Evans are all-conference material. The Jayhawks don't face Oklahoma, in what could be a showdown, until November. KU should be in the race at least until that game.

NEBRASKA — Linebacker Ken Geddes leads seven returning regulars from the squad that led the nation in total defense and coach Bob Devaney can count on offensive help from all-conference fullback Dick Davis and quarterback Frank Patrick. Last season's leading passer in the Big Eight, The Cornhuskers got added aid in the presence of receiver Tom Penney and halfback Jim Orduna, an exceptional break-away runner. Nebraska could get a life by beating Kansas at home in the first conference encounter before meeting Oklahoma in the season's last game that will probably decide the title.

MISSOURI VALLEY — North Texas State has an All-American candidate in 275-pound tackle Joe Greene, a head coach going for his second straight MVC title in his second year on campus, college football's leading aerial combination in quarterback Steve Ramsey and flanker Ronnie Shanklin, and a tenacious defensive unit that led the nation in pass interceptions and calls itself the Mean Green. Rod Rust may improve on his 7-1-1 mark and 4-0 league record of last season but one hurdle stands in the way: Memphis State. The Tigers enter the MVC race for the first time but will need to beef up their offense to match a strong defense before tangling with North Texas' Eagles.

Kramer, 'Kids' Games

Sid Gillman, the coach of the San Diego Chargers, integrated the road rooming arrangements for his team this year and says, "I would recommend that all clubs go that route." Didn't Woody Hayes pave the way for all of them years ago at Ohio State?

Jim Coates, who used to toll in the American League, is known as the only pitcher who ever dared aim a thrown baseball directly at the bulk of Frank Howard. And where's he (Coates) now?

Author-guard Jerry Kramer of the Green Bay Packers has had some doubts about the value of what he does for a living. "When a doctor friend told me about saving the life of a player on the field," he reflects, "I thought it was wonderful to be able to do something worth-while like that . . . while I play silly kids' games." Yet Jerry trimmed himself strenuously to a fighting trim of 250 for this season "because I had doubts about my speed."

Most of the footballers who've tried the Astroturf in the Houston dome this exhibition season are enthusiastic about the surface except for an occasional zipper slip—they'll stumble on the seam where the turf's zipped together.

Diversity of Causes In Peripheral Neuritis

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—What is the cause of peripheral neuritis? What is the best treatment for it?

A—Peripheral neuritis is an inflammation of one or more of the branches derived from the nerve trunks that come from the spinal cord. Possible causes include poisoning with lead, arsenic, alcohol and other chemicals; various infections such as diphtheria, leptospira, German measles, typhus and typhoid; pressure on the nerve by a tumor; injury;
poor circulation, and a deficiency of vitamin B. No single treatment would help all these diverse causes but a nerve specialist (neurologist) might.
Prolonged treatment is often necessary.

Q—I have peripheral neuroi-tis with constant pain in my legs when I sit with my legs resting on a hassock. When I walk I have no pain. My doctor says that a spinal tap may show the cause of the pains.

A—Polyneuritis is an inflammatory process that involves several nerves and it comes in different shades of severity with a variety of causes. It may be associated with diphtheria, infectious mononucleosis, infectious hepatitis, leprosy, Guillain-Bar-re's syndrome or, as is true in many cases, no cause may be found. The symptoms depend on what nerves are involved.
But, in general, if motor nerves are affected, there is weakness or paralysis of the muscles supplied and, if sensory nerves are affected, there is pain or numbness of the area supplied.

Treatment and prognosis
would depend on the cause.
All diseases of the nerves may have some symptoms in common.

Q—I am a housewife, 59. I have been under treatment for manic-depressive psychosis for nine years. For the past three years, I've been taking Alergonic, Triavil, Nuludr and Artane. Are they habit-forming?

A—No.

Is this procedure dangerous?
A—A spinal tap or puncture and the withdrawal of a sample of spinal fluid for various diagnostic tests is a standard procedure and is not dangerous.

Q—What are the cause, symptoms, prognosis and treatment of polyneuritis? Do polyneuritis, inflammatory neuritis and multiple sclerosis have the same effect on a person?

RACE WITH JACKAL

WINDHOEK, South West Africa (AP) — Farmer G. Drosche ran down a jackal on foot here, a feat previously thought by locals to be impossible. He chased the animal, at times following its tracks, for 12 miles before he cornered it
"deadbeat and unable to go any further." A farmhand arrived with dogs which killed the jackal.

EAR FOR MUSIC is not played over the radio to ac-

WIN AT BRIDGE

Humpty Had A Great Fall

By Oswald and James Jacoby

When Ed's car was stolen from a repair shop, he demanded damages for the loss. In a court hearing, he accused the management of negligence for leaving the car in a vacant lot, unattended, with the key in the ignition. But the company replied:
"We have a sign on our wall
reading 'NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THEFT.' That means exactly what it says."
Nevertheless, in spite of the sign, the court upheld Ed's claim. The judge said that, as a matter of public policy, the law usually will not let a garage escape liability for its own carelessness.
In other words, the law does not always accept signs at face value.
Other factors may be taken into

The Bridge World magazine has taken up Lewis Carroll lately. Today's hand is from an article by Ernst Theimer in which a bridge expert finds himself playing against the Red Queen in Carroll's Looking Glass World where everything is backwards.

Humpty Dumpty had just been talking about real backward plays, as distinguished from reverse plays, when our hero found himself playing a five-club contract.

He won the heart lead and studied the hand. It seemed too bad that West had opened a heart. Against a spade opening there would have been time to knock out the ace of clubs, get over to dummy with a second trump, lead a diamond and knock out West's ace by playing the jack or 10.
After that, he would be able to discard one of dummy's hearts on the king of diamonds.

The heart lead had destroyed the timing but a sort of backward play against the Red Queen, who not only sat
East but held the missing red queen, won the rubber.

South just led the 10 of diamonds. East was in with the queen and played a second heart. Now declarer led his king of diamonds and discarded dummy's last heart when Humpty Dumpty did not cover. The play of not covering was his only chance because, if he had covered,
South would ruff in dummy,
return to his hand with the ace of spades and discard his losing heart on the jack of diamonds.

This play would have lost if the ace and queen of diamonds were reversed but Humpty Dumpty's takeout double had marked him with the ace of diamonds.

The visitor, who had been rather annoyed by Humpty's general hard-boiled manner, remarked, "Was that a backward finesse, old boy?"

For once, the unboiled egg had no answer.

Obituaries

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Dr. John M. Whitney, 58, director of a seven-state region of the U.S. Public Health Service, died Sunday, apparently of a heart attack. Whitney, who lived in Overland Park, Kan., was named to the Kansas City regional post in 1961.

CARMEL, Calif. (AP)—Vice Adm. Earle Watkins Mills, 72, chief of the Navy's Bureau of Ships from 1946 to 1949, died Sunday of a heart attack. Since 1966 he has been chairman of Nuclear Engineering Co.

Teacher Has Turned Actress

NEW YORK (AP)—Actress Mildred Dunnock will join the faculty and theater group at the Yale Drama School this fall.

Miss Dunnock will conduct scene-study classes and will perform with the resident Yale Repertory Theater.

Miss Dunnock became a teacher at the insistence of her father before embarking on an acting career encompassing many starring roles. She has taught at Brearley School, Harvard, Vassar, and Barnard.

She created the role of "Big Mama" in the original production of Tennessee Williams' "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," and portrayed the wife of the sad hero of Arthur Miller's "Death of a Salesman" on Broadway, film and television.

lice officers."

Then police lobbed in tear-gas canisters, and the throng streamed through the park and out into a major intersection. Many held handkerchiefs over tearing eyes when they reached the street.

A police squad car that had attempted to approach the crowd from behind was stoned and its windows and flashing light broken.

Police ordered newsmen to leave the park before the tear gas was used. They warned that no sanction or quarter would be given if they stayed.

In the street outside the park, the demonstrators regrouped and taunted police with shouts of "pig and gestapo." Some threw bottles and other debris.

As the police formed phalanxes and charged them, the crowd surged backwards and ran into the Old Town area, a district of night clubs and restaurants, where they brought traffic to a standstill and disrupted business until the early morning hours.

The Book of Kells is an Irish manuscript of the four gospels which dates from about the 8th century.

Highlights of Keynote Address

CHICAGO (AP)—Highlights of the keynote address by Sen. Daniel K. Inouye of Hawaii at the Democratic National Convention.

VIETNAM WAR—Of course the war in Vietnam must be ended. It must be ended, as President Johnson said last March, by patient political negotiation. Like our other complex problems, this one must also be solved responsibly. Just as we shun irresponsible calls for total and devastating military victory, so must we guard against the illusion of an instant peace that has no chance of permanence.

NEGRO PLIGHT—The Negro's unemployment rate is triple the national average. The mortality rate of his children is more than twice that of white children. He often pays more for his miserable tenement than comparable space costs in the white suburbs. Today many thousands of our black brothers return from Vietnam with medals of valor. Some of them have been crippled in service of their country. But too often they return to economic and social circumstances that are barely, if at all, improved over those they left. Is it any wonder that Negroes find it harder to wait another hundred years before they are accepted as full citizens in our free society?

CIVIL ORDER—Let us reject violence as a means of protest. And let us reject those who preach violence. Let us not tempt those who would hide the evil face of racism behind the mask of law and order.

Let us also resist the temptation to apathy. We can never cure the causes of violence with indifference. (But) violence and anarchy will make our task even more difficult. Poverty, discrimination and deprivation, as evil as they are, do not justify anarchy or violence, looting or burning, murder or assassination.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERSHIP—We have laid in place such building blocks of mankind's survival as the nuclear test ban treaty of 1963, the banning of atomic weapons in space in 1967, and the nuclear nonproliferation treaty in 1968.

Twenty million older Americans are now protected under Medicare. Since 1963 the federal government has tripled its investment in education. The last 11 years have seen the passage of the five civil rights bills passed in our entire history. I might note in passing that Lyndon Johnson is the author, chief architect or primary sponsor of each of them.

Working together, we have done much. Together, we can—and must—do much, much more. We have long been the party

HUMPHREY from Page One

Carthy's and McGovern's variously worded proposals for American withdrawal from Vietnam. It turned down McCarthy's suggestion that the United States make an advance commitment for the inclusion of Communist representatives in a coalition Saigon government.

Instead, it said the makeup of that government should be determined "by fair and safeguarded elections open to all major political parties and factions."

This preliminary victory for Humphrey's viewpoint was reflected by other developments in an early morning hour session that seemed to propel the vice president even further ahead of his rivals for the top nomination.

Insurgent Democrats backed by McCarthy failed in their challenge to the seating of a Texas delegation headed by Gov. John Connally, who is expected to take his 104-vote group into Humphrey's camp.

The challengers, who sought 50 seats on the delegation, were turned back by a vote of 1,368 to 955.

Convention delegates previously had defeated a proposal to delay action on the troublesome questions of seating delegates.

Supporters of McCarthy and McGovern wanted the argument delayed. Humphrey asked that the questions be settled immediately. He got his way by a 1,691 to 875 vote, substantially larger than the 1,312 votes needed for a presidential nomination.

The hastily floated balloon for a presidential nomination for Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts was quickly deflated. Kennedy called former Gov. Michael V. DeSalle of Ohio to instruct him not to place the senator's name in nomination.

DeSalle immediately hedged on his announced intention of doing so but said someone else might.

Frank Mankiewicz, former press secretary to the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy now working for McGovern, said the whole operation of trying to draft the surviving Kennedy brother had been "wishful thinking."

Changes Wording Just a Bit

CHICAGO (AP)—A mother and her 5-year-old son were in front of the Palmer House Sunday when pickets marched denouncing the Vietnam war. The boy joined the demonstrators who were shouting, "Hell no, we won't go!" The mother admonished the child and told him to chant, "Heck no, we won't go."

which gave priority to the needs of human beings. So let us go forward with the programs responsive to the needs of today and tomorrow.

Smog Problem Stymies AII

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The problem of smog, which has stymied human thinkers for more than two decades, should be referred to a giant computer, says a researcher.

Seymour Calvert, head of the University of California air pollution research center, told newsmen Monday that scientists need a mathematical model of the atmosphere and everything that goes into it. Then, he said, the computer could calculate the results of various contemplated control measures.

$253,135 for Summer Work in Hempstead

The Neighborhood Youth Corps began the 1968 summer program on June 3, by providing employment for 2,450 enrollees from low income families in forty Arkansas counties, announced Lewis J. Johnson, President of Arkansas Farmers Union. The Out-of-School program for high school drop-outs, and our Work-Training-in-Industry projects operate in twenty-four counties with an average of 150 workers. Enrollees are placed in hospitals, schools, libraries, parks, etc. The Arkansas Highway Department is utilizing approximately 250 workers. The W.T.I. trainees are placed in profit organizations for on-the-job training.

John T. Jean, Administrator of the Arkansas Farmers Union MYC program, states that in the twelve-week 1965 summer program (the largest in the nation), over 16,000 youth were employed in 73 of the 75 counties and over 5 million dollars were paid in enrollee wages. Over the last three year period, the administrative cost has averaged 4.5 per cent of the total federal share. Over 35,000 youth have participated in the program.

"In the past, far too many government programs have overlooked or bypassed the disadvantaged people in rural areas," said Jean. AFU continues to operate in areas where NYC is not furnished through the local community action agency. The program is administered through the Department of Labor.

Living Costs Up Sharply Report Shows

WASHINGTON (AP)—Living costs rose one half of one per cent in July, matching the June jump and recording the sharpest two-month increase in 11 years, the Labor Department reported today.

A steep climb in home mortgage interest rates and medical care charges accounted for much of the rise. Food prices also rose, but less than usual for July.

The July consumer price index at 121.5 was 4.3 per cent higher than a year ago. The index means that it now costs $12.15 to buy the package of typical family needs which cost $10 in the base period, 1957 to 1959.

Department officials said indications are, however, that living costs could taper off in August and that the rise will slow down over the remaining months of this year.

The wholesale price index increased four-tenths of one per cent in July to 109.1 which was 2.4 per cent higher than it was last year. Most of the wholesale price increase resulted from higher prices for farm products and foods.

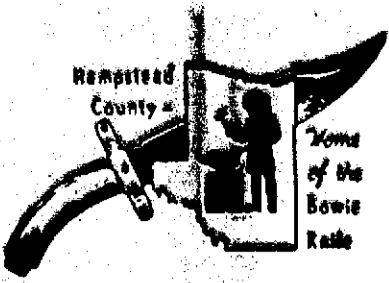

Preliminary indications are for a drop in August whole prices with declines in products and a moderate reduction for processed foods and feeds leading the way, the department said.

Unit Rule Tradition Swept Away

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — Democrats have swept away the century-old tradition of unit-rule voting, despite a claim that front-running presidential hopeful Hubert H. Humphrey supported a move to delay the action until 1972.

Vice President Humphrey has been under fire in Texas and other Southern delegations for the role played by his supporters in joining with backers of his chief rival, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, to vote unit rule abolition in the Rules Committee last week.

But he may have made up for that with a statement Monday, quoted amid boos to the Democratic National Convention by Texas delegate Tom Gordon, that "If you want to abolish the unit rule, well and good. But let's pass a resolution that will be effective in 1972."

"I don't think that we ought to abolish what I think is an undemocratic rule by an undemocratic procedure," Gordon quoted Humphrey as saying.

But Gordon's move to substitute a minority recommendation to retain the unit rule for this convention and abolish it in 1972 was shouted down by an overwhelming voice vote.

A recommendation for a "freedom of conscience" requirement to permit individual delegates to vote as they wish was then approved, also by voice vote.

Nine delegations, Texas, Alaska, Arkansas, Canal Zone, Georgia, Kansas, Missouri, Louisiana and South Carolina, came to the convention with unit rules requiring all votes to be cast the way the majority voted.

The action could have the effect of freeing some delegates in the Oregon and Massachusetts groups, where McCarthy now has the entire delegation by cause of his victories in the two states' winner-take-all primaries. But past conventions have made no effort to enforce state primary laws.

On the whole, the disappearance of the unit rule after 108 years is expected to have little effect on the presidential balloting. Subsequent roll call votes showed most of the members in the unit rule states sticking together.

Humphrey Tightens His Encircling Embrace on Democrat Convention

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey tightened today his encircling embrace on the Democratic presidential nomination with the apparent collapse of efforts to draft Sen. Edward M. Kennedy and the erosion of Southern resistance.

A party convention vote to-night on a Vietnam plank in the platform, shaped to Humphrey's liking and opposed by Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, seemed likely to provide a key countdown on the nomination outcome.

The Platform Committee put before the heavily-guarded and restricted convention a plank rejecting any unconditional halt of the bombing of North Vietnam.

Following the policies laid down by Humphrey—and opposed by McCarthy—the committee recommended a declaration that cessation of the air strikes must not endanger the safety of U.S. troops and must be made only when there is evidence of a reciprocating military de-escalation by North Vietnam.

White House associates said the adoption of such a plank could be the signal for a decision by President Johnson to fly to the convention later this week to receive its plaudits, after the presidential nomination is voted.

A visit on his 60th birthday today, however, was all but ruled out.

There was a tumultuous floor fight in prospect on the Platform Committee's version of how to get peace in Vietnam. The committee struck hard at the views of McCarthy and Sen. George S. McGovern of South Dakota, a fledgling candidate who has failed to draw any significant support to his belated bid for the top nomination.

The committee rejected McCarthy's proposal that the platform call for a "good-will" visit of another 6th Fleet task force to Istanbul last month, club-wielding, rock-throwing students injured about 20 American sailors and there were demonstrations protesting the visit in other cities. At least one student was killed and scores injured.

Despite expressions of misgiving about another fleet visit, Premier Suleyman Demirel said his pro-American government "will not be intimidated." He called the controversy a "tempest in a teapot" and ordered the undersecretary of the Interior to coordinate security measures during the visit.

"Anti-Americanism has been building in Turkey for some years, spurred by resentment at the considerably higher standard of living which American servicemen and their families enjoy."

There were also 11 percent more murders last year than in the previous 12 months, the report said.

He discussed Shrine philanthropy and emphasized the great work being done by the Shrine hospitals for crippled children and for those suffering from burns.

Turks Riot Against Americans

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — The Turkish government, fearing further anti-American violence against U.S. sailors, sent extra riot police to Izmir today for the arrival of more visiting U.S. Navy ships.

Led by the cruiser Little Rock, a task force from the U.S. 6th Fleet was to spend 13 days in the Aegean seaport.

Leftist students were reported preparing to meet the American sailors with showers of eggs and fruit and unfriendly placards.

Some pro-American Turks expressed misgivings about the visit at a time of continuing controversy over the 30,000 U.S. servicemen stationed in Turkey.

During the "good-will" visit of another 6th Fleet task force to Istanbul last month, club-wielding, rock-throwing students injured about 20 American sailors and there were demonstrations protesting the visit in other cities. At least one student was killed and scores injured.

Despite expressions of misgiving about another fleet visit, Premier Suleyman Demirel said his pro-American government "will not be intimidated." He called the controversy a "tempest in a teapot" and ordered the undersecretary of the Interior to coordinate security measures during the visit.

Cong Losses 7,500 in Nine Days

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — An American artillery base on the jungled infiltration corridor northwest of Saigon came under blistering, 200-round rocket and mortar barrage today and then beat back a weak infantry assault.

By the light of flares from circling support planes, the Americans cut down at least 27 enemy soldiers.

U.S. headquarters estimates 7,500 enemy slain in the intensified Viet Cong assaults of the last nine days, and the Communist command appeared to be shifting to less costly rocket and mortar attacks. The allied command reported heavy barrages at camps and towns from the demilitarized zone south to the Mekong Delta.

In addition to the 200-shell barrage at Fire Base Rawlins, about 50 miles northwest of Saigon, enemy gunners raked four other posts along the infiltration route northwest of the city. Two of the camps were hit by light infantry assaults.

Shellings were reported at a dozen South Vietnamese and American camps in the Mekong Delta and in the Duc Lap area where more than 800 enemy died attempting to overrun a U.S. Special Forces camp over the weekend.

Enemy gunners in the Duc Lap area also shot down a twin-engine Caribou transport plane Monday, and a ground patrol that reached the wreckage found the three American crewmen dead. Air reinforcement of Duc Lap appeared to be risky still.

Along the demilitarized zone, North Vietnamese gunners opened up Monday and today with the heaviest shelling there in several weeks. U.S. Marine bases at Dong Ha, Cua Viet and below Con Thien caught almost 250 rounds, many of them from 130mm guns firing from North Vietnam.

Braced for an expected third enemy offensive, the allied command sent B52 bombers to drop some 750 tons of bombs Monday night and today, mostly on the northwest approaches to Saigon and on the inland flank of the demilitarized zone.

The pattern of enemy assaults over the past nine days has all but leveled off.

Rules Driver Training Up to Police

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office said Monday that the State Police Commission is responsible for the driver training program unless the legislature alters a 1965 act.

The opinion went to the state Education Commissioner A. W. Ford, who said his department had been asked to assume responsibility for the program.

The opinion, written by Asst. Atty. Gen. Henry Clinger, said the program was placed under the auspices of the commission under Act 531 of 1965.

In another opinion, the attorney general's office informed William Irving, Forrest City school superintendent, that it would be prudent for the school board to purchase liability insurance.

The opinion said a recent state Supreme Court decision had made the argument that school districts are not liable for damages questionable. The Supreme Court decision said Little Rock was liable for damages caused when a city garbage truck struck an automobile.

Apparently Russia Will Withdraw

PRAGUE (AP) — President Ludvik Svoboda said today the Soviet Union and the other four countries that occupy Czechoslovakia have agreed to withdraw gradually all their troops.

"We have achieved a basic agreement on the gradual, complete withdrawal of the troops. Until that time their presence is a political reality," Svoboda said in a nationwide radio address.

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovak leaders returned home from Moscow today, reportedly with a preliminary agreement from the Kremlin leaving the liberals in office in Czechoslovakia but continuing the Soviet occupation of the country as well.

There was no confirmation of the reported agreement. The official Soviet news agency Tass said that the four days of negotiations in the Soviet capital were "held in a frank and comradely atmosphere." The Communists use "frank" to signify disagreement, but "comradely" is a favorable word.

Informed sources said possibly as many as 100,000 Soviet troops would remain in Czechoslovakia, at least for a while, with orders not to interfere in the country's internal affairs. Even such reforms as press freedom might be left intact, they said, but the Free Czech Radio said censorship would apply once more to all matters concerning other Communist countries.

There were indications more talks would be needed for final agreement.

The raising of the presidential flag at Hradany Castle at 5:25 a.m. signaled the return of President Ludvik Svoboda, who led the Czechoslovak delegation to Moscow Friday.
